In respect of your account(s) with the Bank, the Bank shall provide Discretionary Investment Management Services and Custody Services in accordance with the account opening form and the Bank's standard terms and conditions for Investment and Banking Services (a copy of which has been provided to you) (the "Standard Terms"). Where the contents of this letter are inconsistent with the Standard Terms, this letter shall prevail.

Specific features of the arrangement are detailed below:

1. The Bank's responsibility is limited to Discretionary Investment Management Services and Custody Services solely in respect of the cash and investments held in and/or booked to your account with the Bank. For any advice that you may require concerning other assets or your other personal financial needs you should consult directly with the Financial Intermediary.

3. The Bank will not monitor whether the Financial Intermediary adheres to guidelines (whether compulsory or otherwise) and regulations of regulatory bodies they may be subject to, or to other regulations which the Bank itself would ordinarily have to adhere to if it managed and/or advised you in respect of your assets in the absence of the Financial Intermediary.

4. Upon receipt of a written (including by electronic mail) and/or oral request from any officer or employee of the Financial Intermediary, the Bank shall provide to the Financial Intermediary such information and documentation relating to your account (including but not limited to account valuations) as may be requested from time to time. You acknowledge and agree that all communications between the Bank and any officer or employee of the Financial Intermediary shall be acted upon by the Bank in accordance with the Standard Terms as amended from time to time.

This letter shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of England.
